Enrollment Figures Bother Committee

Enrollment figures for the coming school year were the subject of discussion at the school board meeting Tuesday evening, with the low enrollment at the North school and the possibility of reopening the sixth grade at Bradlee school being the chief problems discussed. Action was deferred until the June meeting of the committee.

The committee also considered the Library Trustees' request that the salary of Miss Evelyn Robinson, originally hired as a librarian by the trustees but now spending practically all her time in the Junior High library, be paid by the school committee budget rather than the library funds. A further study is to be made.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

The Servicemen's Page is prepared by the Townsman editors with the active assistance of the Servicemen's Fund Association.

The Townsman is sent each week, free of charge, to every local serviceman by the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We shall appreciate receiving up-to-the-minute addresses for all Andover men and women in service, in order that our mailing list may be kept accurate.

Kathryn Kip Humphreys who recently graduated at Sweetwater, Texas, with the WASPS.

Midshipman Edward A. Doherty, former Punchard high, St. John's prep, and Boston College grid star, will graduate as ensign at Notre Dame University on May 31. He captained the 1943 B. C. football team and was considered one of the masters of the "T" formation. He has been drawn by the Washington Redskins to play professional football. Eddie will be married on June 4 to Miss Irene Jessie of Railroad street, Methuen. Miss Jessie and Eddie's sister, Eleanor, plan to leave May 26 to attend the graduation ceremonies.

Charles (Barney) O'Neill of the Air Forces has just graduated from taking a six-week course in Link Training (Instrument Flying) at Randolph Field, Texas, and is now back in Greenwood, Miss., Air Force Field. Barney is now a full fledged instructor and has been attending school in Alabama, Mississippi, and Texas.

Miss Virginia G. Stevens, daughter of Police Officer and Mrs. Carl H. Stevens of High Plain road, has completed her "boot training" in the WAVES at Hunter College, New York, and has been assigned to duty at the Naval Proving Station, Dahlgren, Va. Upon completion of her training she was promoted from apprentice seaman to seaman, first class. Miss Stevens was graduated from Punchard High School in 1942 as salutatorian of her class and was awarded a scholarship at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She was granted leave of absence from her studies there during her second year. Miss Stevens was one of four in a regiment of 1700 who were selected on the basis of their high marks attained in tests during training for assignment to the Naval Proving Station.

TO RECEIVE DIPLOMA

One young man, now somewhere in the British Isles, is going to receive his Punchard high diploma. The school committee Tuesday evening voted to award a diploma to Roger Collins, inducted into the Army last fall. Superintendent Erickson reported that Roger had been a good student, and a good school citizen.

The WAVES and the W.A.C.'s made the news locally this week with Seaman, second class Elizabeth Lefebvre completing her basic training and indoctrination course at the Naval Training school, the Bronx, N. Y., and being assigned to San Diego, Calif., and Private Louise Wolfenden finishing her basic training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and being assigned to a bomber squadron at Fort Kearney, Neb.

Two men from Andover have been commissioned second lieutenants of field artillery upon completing the Field Artillery Officer Candidate course of the Field Artillery School at Fort Sill, Okla. They are Donald G. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Thompson, Hidden Field, a former student of Yale University, who has been assigned to the 759th Field Artillery battalion, Camp Rucker, Alabama; and Donald A. Boynton, son of Mrs. Kellogg Boynton, 17 Hidden road, a former student of Yale University, who has been assigned to the 657th Field Artillery battalion, Camp Rucker, Alabama.

Miss Marilyn E. Watts, daughter of Petty Officer, first class, U. S. N. R., and Mrs. Watts, of 10 Dartmouth road, graduated from St. John's hospital, Lowell, last Thursday night, and has been ordered to report at the Naval hospital, Portsmouth, Va., as a member of the U. S. Cadet Nurse corps.

Cpl. J. F. Timony from somewhere in England, thanks the association for the Christmas card. He was afraid he wouldn't like England at first, but it's made a deep impression on him. He has yet to meet another Andover boy. He sends this message to all the mothers and loved ones of the boys in the service: "Don't worry too much, for they are with the finest fighting men in the world and can always take care of themselves."

Lt. Jimmy Robjert is with a fighter squadron somewhere in England.

Nice to hear from Pug Whitcomb whose friendly face used to greet us over at the bank. He's left the "jungle of Cat Island, Miss., and is now with the Quartermaster Corps at Camp Lee, Va." Can't help wondering if he's decided to grow that mustache again.

Pvt. Salvatore Stella, now stationed at Camp Beale, California. He's been with a tank destroyer outfit.

Lieutenant Bob Holland has just had a mid-term Christmas, his Servicemen's Fund Christmas package having caught up with him on May 11th "with a number of addresses on it, . . . but in remarkably good condition in spite of all its travels." Bob expressed some doubts as to how much would be left of it "when these underprivileged characters from towns which do not send Christmas packages get through rifling it." He's looking forward to a leave which he will spend in Andover: "I haven't seen a town yet that can compare with it."

Technical Sergeant Arthur Har-kin of the Marine Corps received his Christmas package on May 17 at Camp Lejeune, N. C., and had he not had a recurrence of malaria it mightn't have caught up to him until next Christmas, he says. He was scheduled to ship out three weeks ago.

Don Haigh, RM 2/c, feels that it was good to think that someone besides your family thinks of "seemingly minor things" like birthday cards. He and Don Urban a while back, ran into each other and "had a heck of a good time comparing gossip." He's also seen Steve East a couple of times and gotten more or less up-to-date on the news.

Leo Shiebler's gone over to Italy from Africa. Looks like a lot of other Yanks did, too, doesn't it, Adolf?

Foster Zink is now a corporal, and is located at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Jimmy Winters liked his Servicemen's Fund birthday card, too. He has seen Vin Mahoney and Bill Wrigley, the latter being in his squadron. He liked the picture of Billy Deyermund in the Townsman: "Still the same old Bill, I guess."

Sgt. Kenneth Nicoll, son of the James Nicolls of Ballardvale, has received the Purple Heart as a result of injuries received in Italy, where he took part as a paratrooper in the invasions of North Africa, Sicily, and Italy.

Address changes: Capt. George Carney to Camp Butner, N. C. . . . Lt. Albert B. Carlson from Princeton, N. J., to Yuma, Ariz. . . . S.F. 2/c James C. Buntin, Jr., from Port Hueneme, Cal., and F.M. 1/c Robert Burnham from N. Y. to c/o FPO, San Francisco. . . . Pfc. Robert W. Hebb from Camp Forrest, Tenn., to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. . . . 1st Sgt. William MacKenzie from Fort Devens to Camp Grant, Ill. . . . Lt. Gilbert J. Grout from Ft. Sill, Okla., to Camp Ritchie, Md. . . . Warren A. Brindle from Laredo, Texas, to Lincoln, Nebraska. . . . Cox John P. Dwyer from Norfolk, Va., to c/o FPO, New York. . . . A/C Bradford Holt from the U. S. Naval Hospital to the Air Station at Memphis.

N. Y. APO addresses include Sgt. Frank C. Emmert. . . . Pvt. Kenneth M. Hart. . . . and Lt. Bernard McDonald. ARM 2/c Stan Palenski, we gather from a nice letter, is up in the Aleutians, doing a bit of traveling, but he's only seen three Andover faces.

Pvt. Frank Foss also liked his card. He's pretty lucky as far as having home-town boys in his outfit is concerned. He was writing the letter to the association while waiting for a call to go through from Kentucky to Andover. Paul Waemer is in the same regiment. Frank Botsch is in the 291st. Schr. Burns is in a medical battalion, and "Dick Davis is around somewhere."

Bud Skea, who's been shifted around and around, hopes to be at Ft. Belvoir, Va., long enough to catch his breath and let the mail catch up with him.

Thomas Dea, Jr., 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dea, 28 Summer street, and Robert Prescott, 32, husband of Mrs. Madeline Prescott, 96 Poor street, have completed their initial naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

West Parish

Cpl. George Putnam returned to his duties at Pampa, Texas, after enjoying a 21-day leave at his home on Lowell street.

The girls' band, including the Junior High members, went to Lowell to play Wednesday.

Two Junior High boys, John Kimball and Richard Lindsay, are taking part in the Serviceman's Club program Sunday, May 28.

Thimble Club Marks Twentieth Birthday

The 20th anniversary of the Thimble Club was celebrated recently in the Square and Compass Club Hall. A reception to invited guests and charter members preceded a turkey dinner, for which 73 covers were laid. The guests of the club were the founder, Mrs. James Walker, the first president, Mrs. Frank Buttrick, the first vice-president, Mrs. John Flint, all of Andover, and the first secretary, Mrs. George Dick, who came from Nahant for the occasion.

A history of the Thimble Club, written by Mrs. Harry Wadman, was read by the secretary, Mrs. Harold Wood. Toasts were given to the founder by the president, Mrs. David Lawson, who was mistress of ceremonies, to the past president by the vice-president, Mrs. Daniel Galley, to the Thimble Club by Mrs. Clifford Chapman, past president, and to the president by Mrs. Owen Staples.

The Merrimack Trio, composed of Miss Frances Magoon, violinist, Mrs. Eleanor Galloway, pianist, Miss Helen Eaton, 'cellist, furnished music for the reception and, following the dinner, an entertainment of selections by the trio and readings by Mrs. Edward Erickson and her daughter, Miss Carlene Erickson, were very well received by an appreciative audience. A special feature of the evening was a large birthday cake gaily decorated and topped by a huge thimble. The cake was cut by Mrs. Walker and later everyone present was served with a piece of the cake. The hall was tastefully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and silver. The place-cards were in the shape of thimbles to which real, vari-colored thimbles were attached by ribbons.

The decorating was done by Mrs. Earl Rutter and Mrs. Owen Staples. The ushers at the reception were Mrs. Earl Rutter, Mrs. Clarence Weeks, and Mrs. Frederick Nowell. The banquet and ticket committee was composed of Mrs. B. F. Hatch, Mrs. George Glennie, Mrs. Robert Deyermont, and Mrs. Fred Gould.

MILK PRODUCERS MEET

The local milk producers met in Grange Hall on Thursday evening. Chester Abbott and Louis Bourdelais were in charge of the reports. Mr. Sidney White spoke on the subsidy which the government has been allowing the farmers during the months of March and April. As he explained, the purpose of the subsidy was to save the consumer from paying an increase in the cost of milk. The figure, however, will not cover the added cost of production, he said.

If you want some, take delivery now, while we have the help. Next winter will be too late. Wood is cut in

Time For Work

In any business everyone has to do his part and do it well in order to allow that business to operate at its maximum efficiency, to allow the firm to get the most for its dollar. In most businesses that is carried out pretty well, sometimes by constant watching and criticizing, sometimes by co-operation on the part of the employees.

It should be that way in town business, too. And sometimes it is, sometimes it isn't. Some town employees really have the interests of the town at heart, and treat their job as if it were something they could keep only by doing a good job, while others act as if their job were something the town owed them.

Several years back the amount of work that some of the public works department men did was not too far from infinitesimally small. The public in general didn't like it, and gradually, about the time Mr. White and Mr. Hall went on the board, things improved so that for a while the men really did a day's work. But now they're slipping again, some of them. You go driving along the road, and you'll find a gang of them busy — busy talking.

It's not a thing that the people who have to pay the bills like, and it's up to the Board itself to do something about it. There is a tendency when you're on a Town Board to be a good fellow with the men who work for the Board, and this is the case with the public works department. Some of the members lend a ready ear to the gripings of some of the workers, and probably feel that when election time comes they will have the support of these men. But if they're smart, they will realize that there are very few employees and a lot of taxpayers. And when the taxpayers see a group of men out on a roadside doing nothing but talking about politics, or the races, or town gossip, they are going to feel that the members of the Board who tolerate such idleness on the part of the men they hire should not have public support when they next come up for election.

China Co-operative Exhibit at Library

The American Committee in Aid of Chinese Cooperatives has loaned to the Memorial Hall Library until June 1 an exhibit of the type of work produced by these cooperatives. All the articles in the exhibit are of a practical nature and include such things as: surgical gauze, for lack of machinery, sterilized in the strong rays of the sun, soap for which raw materials were substituted for the regular ingredients; samples of textiles; a flashlight battery such as are made by disabled soldiers; towels bearing the slogans "Resist and Reconstruct" and "Work Together"; matches, hand dipped, due to lack of machinery; a leather jacket made by a Mohammedan Fur Co-operative in Kansu; a hand loomed blanket similar to the millions used by Chinese soldiers; indigo-dyed Batik. Accompanying the exhibit are several excellent large mounted photographs which show the different types of work carried on by the cooperatives.

An extremely interesting account of these cooperatives may be found in Joy Homer's "Dawn Watch in China," where she gives a first hand account of those she visited—some lodged in mud-walled compounds, some in caves—on her trip to Free China. The cooperative movement got under way in China in 1938 thanks to a group which included Rewi Alley, Edgar Snow and K. P. Liu and to the very practical help in the form of a loan of $5,000,000 by Madame Chiang and H. H. Kung. Today there are more than 2,000 cooperatives which offer to young and old, men and women, disabled soldiers, villagers and refugees, a very practical means for working together for "victory and a better world."

Surette—Gallamore

A wedding of local interest took place in St. Augustine's church last Saturday morning when Miss Ruth Gallamore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallamore of Kansas City, Mo., became the bride of John Surette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Surette of 4 Locke street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry B. Smith at a nuptial mass at 10 o'clock.

The bride wore white satin with an embroidered overskirt and train of white net. Her finger-tip veil was of tulle, and she carried white roses.

Francis Cookson was the best man and the bride's attendants were Gladys and Frances Surette, sisters of the groom. The latter wore matching orchid and blue gowns of mousseline de soie and carried harmonizing old-fashioned bouquets. Pauline Surette, dressed in white georgette, was the flower-girl.

A wedding breakfast for members of the immediate family followed the ceremony.

Sgt. Surette, who is home on a short leave, will return to Pocatello, Idaho, where he is stationed temporarily, and his bride will join him when he receives definite orders.

A pre-nuptial party was held last Thursday night in Stoneham for Miss Gallamore, at the home of Mrs. Henry Surette, which 72 guests attended.
